

PIKE MARKET Food Bank

Volunteer Title

Distribution Volunteer

Shifts: 3 hour shifts preferred
Tuesday and Thursday between 7:00 am - 1:30 pm

Volunteer Objective

Each week, the Pike Market Food Bank distributes free groceries to around 600 individuals and families in our downtown Seattle neighborhood. The Food Bank depends on Grocery Distribution volunteers to be a friendly face that welcomes shoppers. This job is GREAT for groups; we can accommodate up to 12 people per shift.

Position Requirements

- Helpful and friendly attitude
- Lift up to 20lb alone and able to stand for up to 3 hours
- On time and dependable
- Second language not required but helpful

Duties

Support clientele by:

- Assisting them with their food choices
- Notifying them of any quantity limitations of items that day
- Explaining how to prepare and cook certain foods

Run your station by:

- Restocking the line with overstock items when low
- Notifying warehouse distributors when you need more of a certain item
- Sorting items into an organized manner for easy distribution

Contact Information:

Brian Anderson, Food Bank Manager
Email: brian@pmsc-dtfb.org
Phone: (206) 626-6462